DODESKADEN started out in march 2004, and so far they have released two demos, Maktlös (2004) and När ingenting längre spelar någon roll (2005). They have also done a Split 7" with Guantanamo Bay.

DODESKADEN are a crust/hc band from Luleå, Sweden.

The name comes from the japanese filmdirector Akira Kurosawa's first ever colormovie, it's a tragicomical portray of the slums of Tokyo. It is pronounced "Dough-dess ka-then" and is the sound that appears if you think you drive a railbus that really don't exist!
